

RCB score 35-run victory over SRH in IPL

Hyderabad, Apr 26: Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB) scored a dominant 35-run victory over Sunrisers Hyderabad in the 41st match of the Indian Premier League (IPL) at the Rajiv Gandhi International Stadium here on Thursday.

Cameron Green was instrumental in RCB's victory with an unbeaten 37 off 20 balls and then picked up 2 wickets for 12 runs, including the prize wicket of Pat Cummins who sent some shivers down with his 31 off 15 balls. Chasing RCB's imposing total, Hyderabad's innings got off to a shaky start with Travis Head departing for just 1 run in the opening over. Abhishek Sharma provided some momentum, scoring a quickfire 31 off 13 balls, laced with three fours and two sixes, before falling in the fourth over.

Despite the continuous loss of wickets, Hyderabad's batsmen maintained an average run rate of around 10 runs per over initially. However, the frequent dismissals halted their progress, preventing them from maintaining the required momentum in the latter part of their innings.

Captain Pat Cummins offered some resistance with a brisk 31 off 15 balls, featuring one four and three sixes. Shahbaz Ahmed contributed an unbeaten 40 off 37 balls, while Jaydev Unadkat remained not out on 8 runs. Nevertheless, Hyderabad could only reach 171/8 in their allotted 20 overs, falling short of the target set by RCB.

For RCB, Cameron Green, Swapnil Singh, and Karn Sharma claimed two wickets each, while Yash Dayal and Will Jacques chipped in with a wicket apiece.

The opening pair of Virat Kohli (51) and Faf Du Plessis got off to a solid start, adding 48 runs for the first wicket. However, Thangarasu Natarajan provided SRH with their first breakthrough by dismissing Du Plessis for 25 runs off 12 balls, which included three fours and a six.

In the seventh over, Mayank Markandeey struck for SRH, removing Will Jacks (6). Virat and Patidar then built a strong partnership. Despite losing Mahipal Lomror (7) and Dinesh Karthik (11) cheaply, Cameron Green's unbeaten 37 off 20 balls and Swapnil Singh's unbeaten 12 off 8 balls propelled RCB to a formidable total.

RCB's innings received a significant boost from Rajat Patidar's aggressive batting. The right-hander was in sublime touch, smashing a scintillating 50 runs off a mere 20 balls. His innings were adorned with 2 boundaries and an impressive 5 sixes, putting SRH bowlers under immense pressure.

Together with Virat, Patidar formed a threatening partnership that was steering RCB towards a formidable total. However, their promising stand was cut short by SRH's Jaydev Unadkat in the 13th over. Unadkat's dismissal of Patidar broke the crucial partnership and provided SRH with a much-needed breakthrough.

According to the All India Football Federation (AIFF) Central Registration System (CRS) data, India has 27,936 registered female footballers as of March 2024. This is a massive 138 per cent rise in numbers of female footballers in last 21 months. India had 11,724 female footballers registered in June 2022.

"To have as many as 16,212 new female players in our football ecosystem is an encouraging sign that we are on the right track in our planning for the women's football in India." Chaubey attributed the increase to a slew of measures including course correction that was brought in for the Indian Women's League (IWL) in the current season of 2023-24, in addition to the subsequent introduction of a second division competition IWL-2.

"Availability of live broadcast has indeed helped in enhancing the profile of the sport," he added.

secutive title. This season (2023-24) the format was changed to 'home-and-away', which was a big success, appreciated by the clubs, players and fans. Odisha FC emerged victorious ending GK-FC's 3-year long dominance and will represent India in the AFC continental competition.

The inaugural IWL-2 saw participation of 15 clubs at the group stage, six of which have qualified for the final round scheduled next month in Kolkata.

Glib Talkers..!

It was at my cousin's office years ago that I met him. He was, according to my cousin, a star salesman, "Hear him Bob," said my cousin, "He has the gift of the gab!" Which meant he could talk fast and easily as words came out of his mouth faster than a speeding race car.

But my cousin fired him in a month. "I don't know what was wrong," he said, "He had the gift of the gab, yet he failed to make a sale!"

I worked as a salesman during that time, for my dad, and as I studied sales, I could have told my cousin that being a great talker didn't make you a great salesman, but being an intent listener did.

What happens with people who talk too much is that they listen too little.

And it's not just words that you need to listen to, it's also his or her body language. His or her eyes, they're all saying something all the time. A shift from one leg to another means they are getting restless, and you need to stop.

You need to listen with your ears and also your eyes. Also remember that many who are glib talkers are treated with suspicion.

I once had a manager who used to tell me, he could confuse the customer into signing on the dotted line. I wondered what he meant, till, I realized, he managed to get the sale, but after that was the most troublesome customer, because he had not understood anything about the product, while my salesman was busy 'confusing' him.

The sale, though struck, finally became a tedious one to execute.

People look for honesty. They look for integrity. They don't look for fast talkers who block their questions.

And the man with the gift of the gab asks gloomily, "I can talk so well, why can't I sell?"

A salesman saw his customer, staring out the window disconsolately.

"What seems to be the trouble?" he asked.

"I promised my wife a Pomeranian and the cheapest one I can get is $200. It's too much."

"You're right. I can sell you one for $125."

"Great! When can you deliver it?"

"I'll let you know."

Once outside he rushed to a public telephone and rang his sales manager.

"Listen. I've just sold a Pomeranian for $125. What the hell is a Pomeranian?"

That's what happens to salesmen who confuse and don't listen, they sell nothing. Remember you don't need to be glib talker to sell. Listen, understand, and sell.

And this article is not for professional salesmen alone, but for all of us, because in all we do and say, we are actually selling, maybe a thought, an idea, or advice!

So, sell right..!
